

6 W - R K Q ¶ V & R O O H J H * U D G X D W H , Q V W L V MASTER $ ESSAY GUIDELINES

Students who have completed at least two segments of the Graduate Institute and who have demonstrated considerable proficiency in class conversation may apply to the Associate Dean for Graduate Programs and the Graduate Institute Committee for permission to write an optional M D V W H U ¶ V H V V D \ (D F K V W X G H Q W L V U H V S R Q V L E O H I R U I L Q S U D E N T S W H O W X W W wish to submit a proposal to write an essay in their third or fourth term should consult with the Associate Dearearly in their second term.

A M D V W H U ¶ V H V V D \ L i P e r a l A r t s S O D F H R Q H

Step 1: Submit the M D V W H U ¶ V (V V D \ $ S S O L F D W L R Q

A S t - R K Q ¶ V W X W R U H Q O L V W H G E \ W K H V W X G H Q W D G Y L V H V H V V D \ Z i t o n L o r n H U V

Complete applications include:

- 1) 7 K H 0 D V W H U ¶ V (V V D \ $ S S O L F D W L R Q) R U P
- 2) a three to fivepage description of the project
- 3) copies of two preceptorial essays
- 4) please submitthree copiesof your complete applicationsalong with the original. (4 total;paperclipapplication form to the original)

You must

whose essays are found unacceptable.

CAVEAT 1: Students should be aware that opting to write a M

